Fine Library Sets As Holiday Gifts

IF you're among the overwhelming majority whose Christmas fund always shrinks faster than that list does, we can help you to at least one fine present that will bear very lightly on the holiday pocket-book.

Every one loves fine books and these Library Club Editions are such as the wealthiest and most critical booklovers are proud of owning and showing to their friends; elegant bindings-superb illustrations-careful printingpaper and manufacture of the best.

And you need pay no more than a single dollar on any of the sets before it is sent you entire. The rest of the payment to be strung out over fifteen or more months in modest sums, if such a basis of settlement is more convenient for you than to pay all at once.
